2012 Program Guidelines

The Cedric Ray Memorial Scholarship, sponsored by Clay County Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc., d/b/a Endeavor Communications, was developed to further the educational opportunities of the children of our members.

Endeavor Communications will award twelve scholarships this year to high school seniors from among eligible applicants.

The Cedric Ray scholarships are paid directly to the college or university the student will be attending. Each scholarship is valued at $1,000. The applicant must enroll in an accredited institution of higher education/trade school.

To be eligible for this scholarship a student must:

- Live with their parent or legal guardian who maintains their primary residence telephone service with Endeavor Communications * in one of the exchanges listed below.
- The student must maintain at least a "C" grade point average.
- The student must have applied to an accredited institution of higher education or trade school.
- The student must be a high school senior.
- The scholarship application must be verified by the school's Guidance Counselor and Principal.
- Applications must be received by Endeavor Communications by 5:00 pm on March 9, 2012.

Scholarship winners will be determined by a random drawing of all eligible applicants.

Scholarship winners will be asked to attend Endeavor Communications Annual Meeting in April. Winners will be notified by Certified US Mail. All questions of eligibility or clarification of the scholarship program should be directed to Dixie Turner, at 765-795-4261 or 1-800-922-6677. You may contact Dixie via email at dturner@weEndeavor.com.
